

TECHNICAL EXHIBIT 1

DEFINITION OF UNACCOMPANIED BAGGAGE

AIR FORCE

(1) Definition of Unaccompanied Baggage (UB):

(a) Unaccompanied baggage may include clothing, uniforms, pots, pans, cribs, playpens, carriages, toiletries, ironing boards, irons, electric coffee pots, toasters, small radios, portable television sets, high fidelity components (including record players, turntables, amplifiers, turners, speakers, tape recorders but excluding cabinets that are major items of furniture), portable sewing machines, voltage transformers, portable air conditioners, valet items, golf clubs and bags, collapsible non-motorized golf carts, hunting and fishing equipment (including firearms and gun cases but excluding, ammunition and ammunition components), tennis equipment, linens dishes, cutlery, small portable refrigerators, etc.

(b) Unaccompanied baggage may NOT include major items of furniture or appliances such as chairs, tables, cabinets, washers, dryers, freezers, large size refrigerators, bed, mattress, etc.

ARMY

Unaccompanied baggage. That portion of HHG which normally is shipped separately and apart (usually via an expedited mode) from the major items of furniture, and which is required immediately upon or soon after the sponsor's or dependent's arrival at destination for interim housekeeping, pending the arrival of the major portion of the property.

a. It may include clothing uniforms; pots; pans; cribs; playpens; carriages; toiletries; ironing boards; irons; electric coffee pots and toasters; small radios; portable television sets; high fidelity components (including record players, turntables, amplifiers, turners, receivers, and speakers (excluding cabinets that are determined to be major items of furniture)); portable sewing machines; voltage transformers; portable air conditioners; valet items, golf clubs and bags; collapsible non-motorized golf carts; owner-disassembled, non-motorized bicycles; fishing equipment; archery equipment; hunting and shooting equipment (including firearms and gun cases); linens; dishes, cutlery, and an inductee's or recruit's clothing shipped from training duty station to home of record.

b. IT MAY NOT INCLUDE FLAMMABLE ITEMS, MAJOR ITEMS OF FURNITURE, OR APPLIANCES SUCH AS REFRIGERATORS. Transportation officer may make exceptions for small portable-type refrigerators when any of the following conditions exists:

- (1) Member is authorized to ship only unaccompanied baggage.
- (2) Shipment of the refrigerator is the only reason for shipping two lots of personal property.

NAVY AND MARINES

UNACCOMPANIED BAGGAGE. Unaccompanied baggage is the portion of a member's prescribed weight allowance of goods which is not carried free on a ticket used for personal travel and is designated as such on the member's application for shipment and shipped separately or with the bulk of the household goods, whichever will meet the member's needs and permit the most efficient traffic management. These shipments include those items needed immediately upon, or soon after the arrival of the member for performance of duty or for the health and welfare of dependents pending arrival of the household goods shipment. Unaccompanied baggage will include only items in the following categories:

- a. Clothing;
- b. Linens, dishes, cooking utensils, and other light housekeeping items;
- c. Cribs, playpens, baby carriages, and articles necessary for immediate care and comfort of infant dependents;
- d. Small radios, small portable televisions, portable sewing machines; portable phonographs, small tape recorders, and like items;
- e. Other small articles essential to the health of the members and dependents;
- f. Items other than those shown in items a through e, which are determined by the PPTO to be inappropriate for separate shipment (e.g., when only one or two items of all those desired shipped by the member do not qualify as unaccompanied baggage);
- g. Professional books, papers and equipment may be shipped with the unaccompanied baggage if urgently needed in the performance of official duties;
- h. Unaccompanied baggage, except in the case of item f, will not include the following items: refrigerators, freezers, or other major appliances; basic items of furniture; items of extraordinary value; hobby material or other such items not essential to the health and welfare of the member and/or dependents.

NOTE: Members should be advised to be prepared to produce evidence of both ownership and current value should it become necessary to do so in support of an eventual loss and damage claim.

VICINITY OF PERMANENT DUTY STATION. A location in the vicinity of the permanent duty station, as defined in the JFTR VOLUME 1, Appendix A, "Duty Stations," Item 2, specifically includes any residence within the daily commuting area of the member's actual duty assignment (homeport for members on sea duty).